

2nd international summer school at the Doctoral School of Engineering and Science - AAU

The Summer School is planned from August 21st to 25th 2023 (from Monday to Friday). More info at

<http://tiny.cc/vm22vz>

Targeted participants are PhD candidates, PostDocs, and industrial engineers.

The summer school will feature:

- 6 state of the art PhD courses with topics from 5 of our PhD programs with a variety of skilled lectures, lab usage (where applicable) and state of the art knowledge
- Excursion to one of two companies (your choice – more information to follow) followed by a visit to the historical castle Voergaard: <https://www.voergaardslot.dk/>
- Networking with international PhD students and senior academic staff Aalborg University
- Guided city walk through Aalborg
- Top of the line catering at the new AAU Innovate building: <https://www.innovate.aau.dk/>

Pricing: All participants have to pay for the catering (lunches and coffee). The price is EUR 150.

Registration fee for Danish PhD students = DKK 0

Registration fee for non-Danish PhD students is EUR 800.

Registration fee for other participants is EUR 1067.

Reception, city walk and excursion are free of charge.

Location:

The Summer School takes place at the main campus in Aalborg with all catering and joint activities taking place at AAU Innovate – the different courses will be located at the departments around campus.

Reception on Monday: All participants are invited to this reception where Aalborg University's Rector, Per Michael Johansen, or Vice Dean John K. Pedersen will welcome the participants. The reception will take place at the AAU canteen at AAU Innovate Thomas Manns Vej 25 9220 Aalborg East – immediately after course completion on Monday. You will be served tappas, drinks and something sweet.

Lunches: The lunches will be served at AAU Innovate (vegetarian options can be selected when registering).

Guided city-walk: Some fellow Ph.D. students will guide for a walk through Aalborg downtown toward some of the city's most famous sights. The walk starts at 7 PM at Jens Bangs Stenhus (link til map available soon) and will last about two hours. Registration is done when signing up for the summer school.

Excursion: The excursion this year features both a company and a historical venue. Initially you can choose between a visit to Asetak Gaming (startup turned to stock driven company focusing on top of the line sim-level gaming equipment) or a large company based in Aalborg (more info to follow) – both teams will meet up at Vorgaard castle to finish the day off with some historical inputs and exciting stories from this fabled castle in the northern part of Denmark.
